

Paige Jeannine Henderson

January 25, 2000 - March 10, 2020

Paige Jeannine Henderson, 20, Orlando, Florida, passed away unexpectedly Tuesday, March 10, 2020, in Orlando, Florida. She was born on January 25, 2000, in Santa Barbra, California, to Elizabeth Coles and Rich Henderson. Paige is a Timber Creek High School 2018 alumna. From a very young age, Paige revealed that she was a business entrepreneur and an artist at heart. She held a unique fire in her soul to create a new and beautiful, prosperous future for herself and those she loved. Paige was powerful, and she proudly wore her red lipstick, as was her power color. Her strength and selflessness shined through her; she amazed everyone that knew her, achieving more than someone her age could ever achieve. Paige's loved ones describe as being wise beyond her years, always having a keen sense of right and wrong. She stood up against injustice and for whoever needed her tiny-bodied-fighter-spirit behind them. From toddlerhood Paige loved to cook and began creating recipes of her own. She intentionally studied the best chefs and began exploring the world of business. Throughout her childhood she could be found surrounded by art supplies working on marketing products for her next big business idea. Since Paige was a young girl, she set tenacious goals for her businesses; her family fondly recalls upon little Paige setting up an elaborate savings plan for her self funded fifth grade trip to Washington, D.C. As Paige grew older, art and music were both outlets and personal growth pursuits. Days prior to Paige's passing, she had submitted her music to collaborate with local musicians. Art and music were vital to Paige's soul. Paige took in the arts because it fed her curiosity in fearlessly understand the higher echelon of life. She out-put the arts because it overflowed effortlessly through her being. Paige is survived by her mother, Elizabeth Coles, father, Rich Henderson, step father, Arty Coles, sister, Tatiana Delatorre, brother Matthew Henderson, step-sister Lexi Coles, stepbrother AJ Coles, her adoring nephew and godson, Jack Finney; whom she shared an intimate bond with, like kindred souls.
