

Patience Nwaka Mokwunye

October 1, 1949 - October 23, 2025

With gratitude for a life well-lived, the family of Mrs. Patience Nwaka Mokwunye (née Okobi) announces her passing.

Born in Issele-Uku, Aniocha North Local Government Area of Delta State, Nigeria, Patience was the cherished daughter of Chief S. B. K. Okobi and Mrs. Comfort Okobi (née Mekwunye). She grew up in a large, loving family and received her early education in Asaba, attending Holy Trinity Primary School and Asaba Girls Grammar School.

A lifelong learner, she obtained her OND from Federal Polytechnic Mubi (in the former Borno State) and her HND from Federal Polytechnic Ilorin, Nigeria. In 1973, she married her beloved husband, Mr. Azubuike Lawrence Mokwunye, and together they built a beautiful family and life filled with love and faith.

Patience's professional journey included years of dedicated service at Arewa Textiles, and later at the Standards Organisation of Nigeria (SON), both in Kaduna State, where she worked diligently until her retirement.

After retiring, she moved to the United Kingdom in 2005 to join her daughter, Ann Okpala and later, in 2021, relocated to the United States to live with her son, Lawrence Mokwunye.

She is survived by her husband, two children, five siblings, and seven grandchildren, who will forever cherish her memory and the legacy of love, strength, and grace she left behind.
