

Patricia Lynn Cook

December 28, 1951 - November 21, 2015

Patricia Lynn Cook, beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, in-law and friend to many, passed away unexpectedly Saturday, November 21, 2015.

Pat was born December 28, 1951, in Corpus Christi, TX, to Harry and Era Sutherland. Their Navy family moved around a bit before settling in Orlando, where Pat was raised.

She had a marvelous sense of humor and quick wit. This came in handy during her long career as a Registered Nurse with Orlando Regional Medical Center. She was a highly gifted stained-glass artist. And she loved being surrounded by her animal menagerie. She loved the ocean, fishing with her husband, and simply walking on the beach. Pat will always be remembered for her passionate nature and living life on her own terms.

She is preceded in death by both parents and beloved son Dylan Clark. Pat is survived by a large and loving family: devoted husband Jordan Cook; children Krista and Randy Cook (Kate); grandchildren Madison Cook, Katherine and Nicholas Anderson (mother Ursula); brothers Michael and Kenneth Sutherland; sisters Jean Exline and Edith DeCicco (Raymond); nephews Sean Sutherland and Dr. Dan Topping (Ulyana); nieces Lori Sutherland and Naomi Ford (Charles); and grandnephew Edward Ford.

In keeping with Pat's love of animals, it is requested that donations be made to a local animal shelter in lieu of flowers.

Previous Events

Memorial Service

NOV 27. 11:00 AM (ET)

A Community Funeral Home & Sunset Cremations
910 W. Michigan Street
Orlando, FL 32805
(407) 841-4424
<https://www.acommunityfuneralhome.com/>

Tribute Wall

WL

“ I worked with Pat at Orlando Health for many years. Pat always made me laugh and was such a joy to work with. She loved Jordan and her fur babies so much and talked about them all the time. My heart is breaking for Jordan, her fur babies and her extended family. Rest in peace my dear friend.

Winkie Lawley - December 01, 2015 at 09:50 AM

DT

“ 1 file added to the album New Album Name

Dan Topping - November 28, 2015 at 09:19 AM

DT

Should read "Pattie Cook" on the little caption below! Don't know how that got in there...:)

dan topping - November 28, 2015 at 09:35 AM

DT

“ Video link to tribute to the life of a wonderful woman. (Private link - not searchable by the public to maintain her privacy).

<https://youtu.be/iOTVv92e-Qc>

Dan Topping - November 28, 2015 at 09:11 AM

BK

“ We have been neighbors of Pat's even before she met Jordan. I remember how excited she was after her first date with him! I was so happy when they were married right here on Bass Lake. We had so much fun with them. I will always remember Pat's incredible laugh and spirit. We loved her and our thoughts are with all her family. We are so sad to lose her as are we all❤️ Beth and Tim Keener

Beth Keener - November 27, 2015 at 05:48 PM

UT

“ Saddened and stunned by this loss. Aunt Pat was not my aunt by blood - I am married to her nephew, Dan - but she always treated me as a part of her family, from day one. Warm, kind, and generous person with a beautiful smile -that is how I will always remember Aunt Pattie. When Dan and I were students, he graduated before I did and moved away to start residency in Charleston, SC. I graduated several months later and I had very few things to take with me to join Dan in Charleston, but I also didn't have a car. Aunt Pattie drove from Orlando to Gainesville with Dan's Mom, Edi, and we stuffed everything I had into Pat's SUV and she drove us to Charleston so that I could join Dan at our home there. That was one of many things she did for us and for me personally.
I miss you, Aunt Pat.
Ulyana

Ulyana Topping - November 27, 2015 at 04:21 PM

CR

“ We are truly saddened to lose Aunt Pat, such a wonderful and happy gone too soon. We are blessed with the time and memories we had with her and will always cherish those times.
Prayers and love Uncle Jordan and family.
Chandra & Santiago Roybal

Chandra R - November 25, 2015 at 12:35 AM

CR

Happy person*

Chandra R - November 25, 2015 at 12:35 AM

DC

Pat always called me Sister and she felt like a sister. A generous, caring sister ~ it was whatever YOU needed. I have, of course, thought about her constantly over the past few days and I only remember her happy, never angry. I always laughed when Jordan would annoy her and she would just smile and say, "Oh, Jordan!!" My heart hurts but I'm happy for Pat because she's with her true sisters, the angels. Love and miss you, Sister. Dottie Lou

Dottie Lou Cook - November 25, 2015 at 09:13 AM

CC

“ Pat and I are devastated by this news. Our prayers and thoughts are with you, Cookie Man! We only had the pleasure of meeting Patty a few times but they were all happy occasions! That is how we will remember her and for that we are very Thankful! God Bless you and your family and friends.

Pat & Charley DeBow

Capt. Charley - November 23, 2015 at 07:11 PM