

Patricia Mary Neville

June 1, 1927 - October 16, 2016

Patricia Mary Neville, Pat, died peacefully in her sleep on Oct 16, 2016 at her home in Orlando FL.

Pat was born in Brooklyn NY on June 1, 1927, and graduated from St Brendan's High School for Girls. In her early years in Brooklyn, she worked as a secretary. She then married a Navy man and spent 25 years moving up and down the east coast, making homes and raising three devoted daughters. After raising the family, she went back to work at Orlando Regional Medical Center. She retired from the medical center and spent the next several years working at Doctor Robert Faber's medical office. She was preceded in death by her mother Hedwig Johanna Winckler, father James Logan, and brother James Logan. She is survived by her brother Denis Logan, her daughters Patricia, Pat Neville, who was her loving caregiver in later years along with her husband Bob Faber, Doctor

Bob, who was her physician, Maureen Neville, Ginny Boyle and her husband Zeke Boyle, grandson Luke Boyle, and step grandchildren Lisa and Ben Faber, his wife Mandy and children Hannah and Francis. Additionally, she is survived by her dear friends Clara Nelle Ellixson and Mary Lou Masterson along with numerous nieces and nephews. Pat's world revolved around her children who were a source of joy and pride. She was a Brooklyn girl at heart who also loved the ocean and nature. She shared that love with her children through many memorable vacations by the sea. She was a skilled seamstress and knitter, designing and making her children's clothing when they were young. Pat was a small woman with a strong spirit and sense of determination. She always looked at the bright side of life and soldiered on during difficult times with never a complaint. She will be remembered for that strength and unfailing optimism.

A celebration of her life will take place at her daughter Pat and son-in-law Bob Faber's house, 5232 Driscoll Ct, Orlando, on Sunday December 11 from 3pm to 5pm. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the American Cancer Society.

“ Pat was my neighbor for over 20 years, but more than a neighbor; she was a dear friend. We shared many experiences and learned to depend on each other. I am already missing her, but it is comforting to know that she is now at rest with our heavenly Father.
