“ With much sadness, I learned of my Aunt Patty's passing. For all those who knew her, and Petruzzi siblings, she was a very generous and selfless follower of Christ. When I remember and reflect on her life, those adjectives of generosity and (selfless) caring about others and resisting one's own needs - that is the life of my Aunt Patty. My Aunt Patty and Uncle Dave had such a strong bond and so much love for others that they formed a loving family from many "close and far away places". They provided their children with love, education, necessities, and a faith in God. As an adult, there were only a few occasions I saw my Aunt Patty - what always sticks in my memory is her interest in you...her questions and interest in your life. She was always thinking of others. As we all grow older, my Aunt Patty is and has been a truly wonderful role model for her children and grandchildren. I know she is now in eternal peace and comfort. “ Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you. What a huge blessing it was to have those couple days that we were able to have to visit Patty and David, and all of you kids.

One of the things I (Mary) shared with your mom when I spoke to her, was how I had always thought of her as being a kind individual. I reminded her of how she had gotten gifts for Angela the year we brought her and how she had been so kind when we brought Samantha down when we had custody of her while the courts were figuring out what to do with an innocent 2yr old. Your mother's heart was so taken with her and her situation. Always especially fond of children, she was warming and welcoming to Jason and Kelly as well. She always made me feel welcomed to the family regardless of how I got there! She hugged me that day in hospice as we talked. I told her I loved her and that I wanted her to know that I always saw her as a great representative of Jesus. She asked, " You do?" I answered truthfully when I told her, "yes, I sure do!" There is no greater life than to have lived it as a flesh and blood representative of Christ to her family, friends, and the world. We have been blessed by her love and kindness. She will be missed, but Hallelujah! she has graduated to her reward of perfection at HOME with the Lord. For all who believe and live the life of faith in Jesus as our one and only sin forgiver--we will meet again. Watch for us, Patty. It'll be good to see you again.....

With our love,
Dennis and Mary DeSormoux
