

Mrs. Patricia Gail Campbell Spangler

September 27, 1944 - October 21, 2012

Patricia Gail Campbell Spangler (Pat) from Kimberley West Virginia, born September 27, 1944 got her wings October 21, 2012 at her home in Orlando, FL.

She was a wonderful Wife, Mom, Grandma, Grate Grandma and friend.

Her family always came first in her eyes. She had a heart of gold and lived every day with a amazing smile that would light up the room. She loved Hearts. Red was her favorite color. She love the beach and the sound of the waves. Butter Pecan Ice Cream and Red Door perfume. Her BFF where Shari & Judy. She loved Country Music and was a member of the NRA. The Spangler house she was known as the higher power just under God.

Survived By Her Husband of 53 year's Billy Ray Spangler; three Daughter's: Janet and Sam Laws, Robin Walker and Billy Dyson, Toni and Clifford Fredrick; Grandchildren: Scott and PJ Walker, Patricia and Westley Fredrick; Great Grandson: Danny Joe Walker.

Tribute Wall

TF

“ I miss my mom more than words can say my heart aches and it doesn't seem to get any easier as time goes by I love you mom always and forever

tonya spangler fredrick - June 08, 2014 at 09:47 AM

TF

“ I miss my mom more than words can say my heart aches and it doesn't seem to get any easier as time goes by I love you mom always and forever

tonya spangler fredrick - June 08, 2014 at 09:47 AM