“ I am so thankful to have had you in my life! For you to be the woman, my children got to call Gma was one of the biggest blessings I could have been given! You were always there when I needed an ear, or a break from life! You have always been one of our biggest cheerleaders and we will miss that terribly! I will Miss my phone buddy on my long drives home from work and look forward to the day we can talk again! Amara, Christopher and I love you more than any words could ever describe! Rest Easy Patty!!

“ Thank you for the times you made me absolutely laugh and inviting me into your home for holidays and birthdays. I've always loved seeing how everyone in your family loved each other so much and always band together. It won't be the same visiting town and not seeing you around. Till next time Patty!
