“My dear Buelah, Patty and family:

Our deepest sympathy on the death of Pat. We will cherish the happy memories spent with him on his visits to Monymusk, and our trips to Port Royal.

Pecos (Roderick Sr.) often spoke of the fun he had with his cousins (Pat & Keith) when they were kids and visited "Orange Grove." And later after his retirement, when he assisted Pat for a short while at "Glistening Water," where they enjoyed such stimulating conversations, which encompassed religion, politics, domestic and interanational affairs. What a great sense of humor Pat had!!

Pat will be missed by all.

Love as always,

Claire, Anne, Spencer, Jennifer Hale and families

“ Mr. Pat always had a smile on his face when I came to visit Ms. Pat, he was a lucky person to have Ms. Pat, Kitty, Ian and Susan to be there for him no matter what, being loved and cared for by such a wonderful family how lucky he was. You will be missed and my thoughts and prayers are with your family.

Love,
Jerry and Gail Stevens

“ Mr. P, affectionately called by my family and I. You will be greatly missed. The phrase I often hear from you every time we speak "Shauna you are a Champion" will always ring out in my head and propels me to be "A Champion". We love you and certainly our trips to Falmouth will never be the same. It's hard for me to accept this "new" change but when I saw you 3 weeks ago you assured me that you were ready and so with that I am comforted somewhat.

Sleep well "Daddy and Grandpa" and you will always be remembered each day by us.

We love you dearly.

Condolences to Ms. P(Patty), Kitty, Susan and Ian but the chain will never be broken.

Greatly missed by Shauna Ellwood Phillips and Family.

“ Our Dear Patrick has left us -

There will be an Empty Chair at the table each Sunday, and we will miss his Smiling Face, his Spirit and those Happy Days. We will always remember his Borderline Jokes and the Laughter that followed, and of course, His Glass turned "Upside Down !!!"

Our Deepest Sympathy and Love to Patti, Kitty, Susie and Ian. May all the Good Memories get you through this Sad time.

Walk Good Dear Friend.
