

Peggy Jo Linville

August 10, 1931 - August 31, 2016

Peggy Jo Linville, 85, of Winter Park, Florida passed away August 31, 2016. Peggy was born in South Charleston, West Virginia on August 10, 1931. Peggy was preceded in death by her husband Jackie "Jack" Augustus Linville; parents, Keith and Georgie Chilton; Peggy is survived by her loving daughter, Keithanne Casey; grandson, Jack McHale Casey.

Peggy touched many people throughout her life. She was known as a second mother/grandmother to many who loved her. She was a wonderful confidant, friend, mother and grandmother who will be missed by many.

She loved to decorate and entertain. She especially enjoyed putting on her annual Christmas Eve parties for family and friends and has given lots of cherishable memories to all who attended. As we all know she loved to shop and always made sure she looked fabulous from her hair (done religiously once a week since I can remember by her wonderful hairdresser who was like family to her) to her make up to her clothes - always the latest in fashion lol.

We wish to thank all of our family and friends for their continued prayers, support and words of encouragement through this difficult time.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Sunday September 18, 2016 from 1-5pm at her home 2714 Little John Road Winter Park, Florida 32792

In lieu of flowers donations may be made to Cornerstone Hospice Winter Park, Florida In Memory of Peggy Jo Linville.

I had to break down and cry when I read your wonderful obit for Peg. I had known her since my sister Jane brought her home with her from college. They were friends at what is known now as University of Charleston. The next year they both went to West Virginia University. What you said about Peg was very true. You never saw her that she didn't look like a movie star. I know she will be missed by all who knew her. She was a great sister- in - law!!!! Love Amy

Thank you. I'm not much of a writer but just wanted to put in what everyone would remember and loved about her. Here her nickname was "Park Avenue Peg" lol

I don't think I knew that. I can see why that was her nickname. Did you know about my sister Jane? We had such fun when she came home with Jane. There will never be another Peg. Love you.

“ There will be this void in the Pines now that Peggy has passed. There was a void when Jack passed. We used to see them at the Aloma Cinema and it wasn't the same when Jack was no longer there. Our love and support go out to the entire family and friends.

“ My family would like to send sincere condolences to the Linville family for the loss of your dear loved one. May you find comfort from the bible promise at Isaiah 25:8. Pray constantly, avoid isolation, and lean on God as you cope during this most difficult time.
