“ *I miss you more than I can ever say P.J.
We had more fun and laughs.
Your memory will be with me until I close my eyes
and hopefully join you in my final chapter.*

Love you always, Annie

“ Oh, you guys, my heart just breaks for you. I hope that in time the comfort that we're all trying to send to you does some good, and helps. I will always remember PJ as someone I thought to be stunningly beautiful, and SO COOL for a mom, when I was a teenager spending every free moment over at your house, Shelly. She and her gentleman friend took you and I to 6 weeks of disco dance lessons! Do you remember that? Kevin, Kathy, Shelly, and all the rest of you, I send all my love and condolences. It's so hard when such an influential member of our lives leaves us here. The way you all felt about her is so evident in the way you all speak of her. Rest easy, PJ. Lisa Percy Wolf

“ Such a beautiful lady. One of the strongest women I every met. No matter the struggles she kept her head above the water and kept going. We will miss her everyday as we should. One day a smile will take the place of the tears as we think of the good times. Of course the tears will still be there but not as often. Her family did everything necessary to help her on her journey and she would be proud of each. Love You All

“ You have my deepest sympathy and empathy in you loss. During such a time I was greatly encouraged by a promise I found in the Bible at Revelation 21:3, 4 where a time will come when we will not experience the suffering that come from this type of tragedy. With this thought in mind I invite you to visit www.jw.org, there you will find more information on Gods promise of the resurrection.
