

Pito Cee

April 30, 1971 - March 15, 2016

Pito Cee, age 44, passed away unexpectedly on Tuesday, March 15th 2016 in Orlando, Florida. He was the only son of Fernando C. Clemente and Luz Delia Sanchez. He was born in Manhattan, New York and was raised in the Bronx. Pito was an adventurer and thrill seeker enjoying daring hobbies including motorcycling, skiing, scuba diving, roller skating, RTV riding, hiking, and camping. Pito was an intellectual, modern philosopher, problem solver, and entrepreneur. He was a mentor and leader to many young men and maintained all those relationships until the day he passed. His latest passion was collecting Egyptian art, studying science and alchemy, as well as becoming a vegan and exercising. His contagious smile and laughter will be part of loving memories.

Pito is survived by his sisters Katherine, Adele and Jennifer, his life partner Maria Ortiz, his children Krystina, Kassandra, Kiana, Jada, Karina, Jillian, Yazmeen, Johnny, Josalyn, and Danny, his grandchildren K'Lynn, Kiana, Mason, Mia Monroe, and Aaliyah, the Clemente Clan, Sanchez family, and his entire Classon Point Gardens family.

He was a true soldier, whether on time or late, a man of his word. His energy will truly be missed but on his journey to becoming a better version of himself led toward his discovery of life's true mysteries. We will continue to live in his memory through our family. We love you forever, until we meet again. He is enlightened.
