

Polly P Andrews

April 21, 1941 - January 24, 2014

Polly was born April 21, 1941 in NYC to Polly & George C. Andrews.

Polly was extremely warm, loving & generous ... very fun, outgoing & kind. She taught us how to laugh & love. She was a beautiful women ... and a wonderful Mother & friend.

She is survived by her daughter Kristen Nugent, sister Barbara Brinkley & half brother Richard Andrews.

Some of her loves: Travel, family, cooking, music ( Classical, Jazz, R&B, Classic Rock), dancing, scuba diving, tennis, football, Social hour ...

Polly's wishes were to be cremated and have her ashes scattered in St. Thomas V.I. ... which we will eventually do in the future.

Please, no flowers ... If you would like to make a donation in her name, Polly's favorite charity is St. Jude's for children.

" Think of stepping on shore and finding Heaven.
Of taking hold of a hand and finding God's.
Of breathing new air and finding it celestial.

Of feeling invigoration and finding it immortality.

Of passing storm and tempest and finding perfect calm.

Of walking and finding ' I'm home.' "

“ When the enemy death strikes your grief can be great. It's never the right time to say goodbye to a loved one. Death too many seems to be a part of life. It's during times such as these that we can find comfort in the Lord's Prayer in Matthew 6:9, 10 ~ "Our Father in the heavens, let your name be sanctified. Let your kingdom come. Let your will take place, as in heaven, also upon earth". Only God's (Psalms 83:18) Kingdom can bring peace, happiness, perfect health, and everlasting life. For more comforting thoughts and to know why we get sick, or grow old and die please go to www.jw.org

“ This song was Polly's favorite, I recall. We played it endlessly! had great fun with the chiming bells. Les Compagnons de las Chanson's 1952 recording of The Three Bells (Les Trois Cloches). Find YouTube of the recording here:

“ This song was one of our favorites, from 1952. In my heart, I now "sing" it to Polly every day, with enduring love, Her sister, Barbara

"Vaya con Dios" ...sung by Les Paul and Mary Ford, 1952... You Tube here:

Apr 1, 2009... Now the hacienda's dark, the town is sleeping; Now the time has come to part, the time for weeping. Vaya con Dios my darling, Vaya con Dios my love.

Kathleen Carroll and I were both childhood friends of Polly. She was a beautiful vivacious kid. By the time we were 11 or 12 we would go over to the "Spot" or was it the "Majestic" after school to have a coke and french fries. I felt that I was really in if I got a seat at Polly's table.

“ Kris,

Growing up, we lived in two different states, so I saw very little of you and missed out on a relationship. I'm so sorry for the loss of your mom. Please know that Wayne and I are holding you close in thought and prayer, not just during this challenging time of your life, but always.

*God bless you,

“ One of the joys of my childhood was having two younger sisters for whom I was a big brother. Thank you Kris for sharing the childhood photos because I remember that bright curious little face so well. Even then Polly was always up for an adventure, and we had great fun together. I'll miss her bright spirit greatly.

“ Kristen, I grew up with your mother in Lake Placid NY. I am sorry to hear of her passing. I do not have many pictures of her in HS but did find one recently of her and Trudy Connors. (I could send it to you if you want it.) My name is Nancy Weaver VanBuren- I graduated in 1957. This picture of her is stunning. She was a beautiful woman.

NANCY VANBUREN - February 04, 2014 at 04:50 PM

“ I will always remember that great smile. Polly could light up a room. Loved meeting her at Outback to drink and chat. What a wonderful lady she was. R.I.P. Polly, I know you are looking down on us and smiling. You are "DANCING IN THE SKY"

“ Truly a fun loving, sweet woman who always made me laugh. I'll always remember her fondly... especially when anyone asks me to have a drink before dinner... she and Opa would always remark "You can't eat on an empty stomach!" One of my fav lines of all time and one I still use today. She will be missed.

“ I never had the pleasure of meeting Polly, but I know Kristen and wow, can you ever see the resemblance. Knowing what a joy of a person her daughter is, it follows that the woman who raised her must have been spectacular, wonderful, and warm. My heart goes out to everyone who knew and loved Polly, especially Kristen, since I know she is missing her so. St. Jude has long been a favorite charity of my dad's and mine, so I will be glad to make a donation in her memory. What a beautiful angel to watch over Kristen.

“ Polly, Polly,

Such wonderful fun and happy days we spent as kids growing up in Lake Placid. You have occupied a very special place in my heart during pretty much my whole life. Thoughts of the mischief and fun we shared makes me smile. Listening to "Black and Blue" by Louie Armstrong, sitting on the big puffy couch we all shared, warming by the your huge Adirondack rock fireplace. Such fun, such fun. I've missed you for a long time Polly. May you and your sweet loving spirit bring comfort to Kristen during this difficult time. I am blessed to have known you and to have been your friend. May you now rest in peace,

“ Very sorry to hear of your loss, losing a love one in death is something our Creator never intended for us to experience. How we long for the time when death will be no more as promised in the Bible. (Rev. 21:4) May the God of all comfort be with your family during this difficult time. (2Corin. 1:3,4)
