

Rafael Parrilla Ramos

June 26, 1951 - April 2, 2019

Rafael Parrilla Ramos was born on June 26, 1951 in New York City. His parents were Rafael Parrilla and Ana D. Ramos.

He married Lydia Hernandez on July 4, 1974 in Mayaguez, Puerto Rico. They had two children, Rafael David and Miliana. He had three grandchildren Anthony, Kianaliz, and BellaRose, which gave him great joy.

He was a Science and Secondary Education Teacher, but his real passion was the sacred music. He dedicated his musical talents to the service of our Lord by singing (he had a beautiful baritone voice), formed and directed choirs and groups, arranged music, etc.

He was a member of various professional quartets like Shalom Quartet and the internationally known Los Heraldos del Rey.

He rested in the Lord on April 2, 2019. With great sorrow we say "See you soon" because we know we will see him again at the SOUND OF THE TRUMPET...
