“ Ralph was a wonderful guy. He loved cruising and we put a "magic" cruise together in 2000. Ralph was the travel agent and I was the coordinator Cruise Director. He always talked about that special cruise and I know he missed returning to the high seas.

“ We admired Ralph for the grace and humor with which he handle the physical issues that were part of life for so many decades. Despite challenges he never complained or said “why me”. He exemplified the strength and fortitude of one who took the obstacles and made the most of what life dealt him. He liked to say, “you play with the cards you are dealt”.
All our love to the family for which he was so proud!

Uncle Ralph was my "birthday buddy" - his being November 1st & mine November 2nd. He always teased me saying that if I hadn't taken my own sweet time we could have shared the same birthday. I think I just missed it by minutes. We will truly miss his humor. He is the last of 4 great brothers who taught all of us kids how life should be lived. Love you always Uncle Ralph.

“My memories of this great man were the many visits when he would often ride with me while I was a patrol officer. He truly enjoyed it and even thought he called me the DUMB Cop I knew he respected and care about me.

The then the memories when I would visit him. He was a great host and so happy I had come. Then the second day he would ask if I wanted to do something. I replied I did and he had me cut up a dead tree, moved vending machines in the garaged, and relocate furniture in the house.

On the serious side, I loved and respected him and will join him in time to laugh beside him on streets of gold.
