“ I never knew him as RJ...he was just Ralph to me, we were told we were cousins until we were teen-agers but treated each other like family. I enjoyed the great times we had growing up....Ralph you are in my thoughts and prayers. My condolences to Aunt Maryanne and Darrin.

“ I, too, know RJ as Ralphie from growing up together. Gratefully I saw him the last time he was in Connecticut. We went to see his cousin Michael's band play with my sister and friends. He was being very quiet until they started playing "Lady Marmalade." He got up, threw his coat off, and started dancing like crazy. It was hysterical. I went to see Michael's band last weekend and found out about Ralphie's accident. I told my friend's about him. A little while later they played "Lady Marmalade." It was perfect. I will never be able to hear that song again without thinking of him. You will be sadly missed.

“ I worked with R.J for many years. He was the kind of person that you just loved to be around. He was fun, outgoing, silly and a little crazy. I cherished our friendship because I knew he could always make me smile if I was having a bad day. I haven't seen him in awhile but knew no matter how much time had passed our friendship would always pick up right where we left off. You will be greatly missed!! RIP my friend!! Angie

“ RJ you will always be one of my favorites. The last time I saw you I gave you a hard time about returning to nights and you said soon Eddie I will be back to teach you the tricks of the trade. Then we laughed then you said be back soon. I am going to miss you more than I thought you are an amazing person and unforgettable as well. For everyone else take comfort in the fact RJ is loved by everyone who ever had the privilege of knowing him. I am a better person because of him.

“ He is an special person in everyone's heart. He will be missed dearly but never forgotten. Bartending at Chilis with him was a blast.

Tina Pitts - January 15, 2016 at 08:38 PM

“ There were so many memories, where to begin. I had been in and out of Calypso Cay for YEARS. RJ, was always a ray of sunshine. Him, like me, were in and out of the resort. We would talk mostly out on the outside deck talking about everything from the resteraunt business, to what he was doing to his house. I can't remember one time that he wasn't a happy camper. Lots of laughs, and he will truly be missed. Like most people I choose to be acquainted with, he was a ray of sunshine, and always a positive spirit. Rest in Peace my friend.

“ I had the great pleasure of knowing RJ as Ralphie and memories we have a bunch, most of which we were getting into trouble. Though miles separated us it was only temporary. As adults we reconnected and it was as if time stood still, he welcomed me and my daughter into his home where he would love to cook and make us laugh with his infectious laugh and warm heart. We could always find him either in the kitchen or revamping some piece of furniture, my how he has a talent for redocorating. I speak of him in the present tense because he and our memories will live forever in my heart. Ralphie/Ralph/RJ thank you for being you.

“ RJ was very special in many ways. Always made you feel welcome when you were around. Memories there are so many, one thing I will never forget about you is the care free attitude you have. I can not remember a time that I saw you that you weren't smiling. Today was tough for so many to lose such a great person. RJ always said I was a man of few words. Rj you will always be with us. Thanks for all the memories. God bless you, Love always, Darin Kosienski

“ RJ always found something funny to add to the conversation. No matter where or when I needed an ear or a shoulder, RJ was always willing to jump right in. I have great memories With the family, playing cards (high low)...

Darrin and RJ would argue who the banker would be, many laughs over 2 loving brothers! He was gracious enough to have my engagement party at his house & so many more events the family held. I am thankful for the friendship & love that I received. My thoughts are cloudy at the moment as this was truly a huge loss to all that love him.

Together we will carry on the shenanigans!

In honor of RJ ~ all men attending the service~

Please make sure your belt matches your shoes! Love always,
Stephanie
