

Randall Fladger

October 25, 1932 - August 17, 2016

Randall Fladger (Randy) was born on October 25th, 1932 in Marion, South Carolina. Randall and his twin brother Reynold were the youngest of 10 children to Russell and Maudena Fladger (deceased). Preceding him in eternal rest are his sisters: Berniece and Myrtle; his brothers Chappell, Burkett, Caroll, Curtis, Samuel "SJ", and Arthur T. Fladger; and his daughter Felicia-Fladger Smith (Fee). Randall Fladger was 83 years old when he passed at Keystone Rehabilitation Center (nursing home) in Kissimmee, Florida.

Randall was raised in Virginia and later moved to Newark, New Jersey. In high school, he enjoyed running track, loved watching baseball and basketball. Upon graduation, he attended Hampton Institute before enlisting in the Navy where boxing had also become a hobby for him. After serving a total of 5 years, he worked as an X-Ray technologist for 35 years where he then retired. Because Randall was a workaholic, he worked at Newark International Airport as a Skycap and transferred his employment to Orlando International Airport after he and his family moved from New Jersey to Florida in 2007.

Randall enjoyed cooking, loved listening to Jazz music, singing, traveling, and telling jokes. He had many memories and stories to tell about his life and always talked about history. He was a family man and just wanted everyone to get along. He was a great listener, and always had a positive attitude.

Randall will be greatly missed by his beloved wife, Sarah Fladger; his children, Chappell (Chappy), Marlon, Janice Bagley, Joanne Calderon and Hannah Fladger; grandchildren, Ajai and Amare Smith, Shamar, Jalia, Jade, and Jrue Bagley; in-laws, Mitchell Smith, Jeffrey Bagley, EJ Calderon, Leila Gross; and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.
