“ I was informed of Ravi’s passing recently from a mutual acquaintance. I knew Ravi as my go to AC guy for my business but he was that for nearly 15 years and we certainly had a rapport that reflected it. I will forever be grateful for his knowledge and everything he helped me with. I always loved occasions where his son or father would be present during the jobs to help out because I am a small business myself. He is the reason I know how to move forward and maintain my systems. I will miss him dearly and always be thankful for his help.

“ Ravi, you will be deeply missed. I still remember when Aamaya was a toddler and was scared of you, but over the years, she grew to befriend you. We'll cherish the good times, from fixing our AC to playdates with your grandson and the girls, and the fun moments we shared, taking shots and clowning around with Jason. You'll forever be in our hearts!

“ I still can't believe you're gone. Your one who brought everyone together, who laughed the loudest and hugged the hardest.

You were the bond that held us close, and without you, everything feels a little quieter, a little emptier. You may be gone from our sight, but you'll never be gone from our hearts.

“ When Roshni told me you were gone, I was in complete shock. It didn't feel real.

We didn't get to spend a lot of time together, but the time we did share always left an impression. You had this way of making me feel like I belonged - like I was part of the family from day one. Every time we hung out, it never felt forced or polite, it felt real. Like I was liming with my own brother.

My deepest condolences to the Singh family. I can only imagine how heavy this loss must be, and my heart goes out to all of you.

Rest easy, Ravi. Gone too soon, boy. You'll always be remembered with love. One love, always 🙏🥹 “ Rav I don't even know where to start. Cousins don't even feel like the right word for us. You're a brother to me; Moms favorite nephew. We love you so much. You were always checking up on me, always making sure I was good, always making me laugh and being there when I needed to vent. You're so forgiving. You love so much. You're literally the reason all the cousins got back together. You're an amazing brother, son, dad, nephew, and friend. I'll cherish every memory I have of you - your laugh, your positivity, your warmth. You loved unconditionally and I'm going to miss you so much.

“ Ravi was always our cooler older cousin. He'd laugh together when I'd call him the OG and we'd cry together at times remembering our childhood. We made a lot of beautiful memories together with our kids just like we grew up. He was the cousin that would let me back into the room while all the other older cousins wanted to kick me out. I always had a spot with him. The last time him and I got together we shared tacos and drank a beer, he insisted! He was just that guy It will be a time I'll cherish forever now as I will all the other beautiful memories we made together. I love you brother and I will truly miss you. Watch over us with dad now ☐

“ Rav, We grew up like siblings, and some of my best memories were with you. We shared so many laughs over the years, and you always had a way of making me feel special. I still remember how you used to pick me up early from school, and that time you surprised me with balloons for my birthday when I was just a kid, I never forgot that. You had such a big heart. I’m going to miss you so much. I love you always
