“ Happy Birthday, Daddy. Thinking of you today on your birthday as I do every day. I love you so much to the moon and back to infinity and beyond, forever and ever. You have a granddaughter named Emma Rae Wingo after you, and you would love her and be so proud of her. She loves you and talks about you a lot, which makes us sad and happy. She tells everyone that she has a granddaddy in heaven, and someday we will all be together. We know you are taking care of your other grandchild up in heaven and feeling joy and love. Mom is thinking of you always and missing you, especially today on your birthday.

“ I have thought about Ray often recently and I just learned today that Ray passed away after I tried to call him on his cell to catch up. Ray was always a mentor to me as a young man and I called him often to ask his advise on complicated valuation problems. I always affectionately called him Captain because he was the "Captain of his own ship". He enjoyed the nick name and we always greeted each other as Captain in a humorous way over the years. We first met many years ago working on projects together in the Keys while he was still in Ft. Lauderdale. I always thought he was a true gentleman and a thoughtful man with a great sense of humor and a great sense for values. I am so sorry I did not get the opportunity to talk to him near his last days. God bless Ray Wingo and his family. I am very sorry to learn about his passing. I will miss him and can only imagine the loss the family has had to deal with. I am sure he is still the Captain of his own ship. Deepest sympathy to the family. Bill Benson, Melbourne,Florida

“ Ray, We especially missed you today on your birthday, October 11. We spent all day doing things in your memory that it got to be after midnight before we could get here...and no longer your birthday. You were so much a part of our lives that it is hard to realize you are gone...but you are always in our hearts and we feel your love and presence. What you told us the night before you left. your kind and loving words and eyes brings us comfort. Loving you all day long on your special day ...and always. Caro;

“ We are sorry to read of the passing of your loved one. Words don't always ease the pain when you are grieving the death of a loved one, but we hope you will find comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) when he will raise up those who are now sleeping in death (John 11:11) restoring them back to life, on the renewed Paradise earth (John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43) what a wonderful blessing to look forward too. Until then, may Jehovah God (Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ Ray was always "The Duke" because he reminded us of John Wayne, big and strong and handsome. He always remembered Aunt Ann by sending her flowers for every occasion. His kindness and thoughtfulness will be missed.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss! In these times of deep sorrow God's word provides so much comfort. Revelation 21:4 promises a time when pain and sorrow will be of the past. I hope that it gives you as much comfort as it has me in these difficult times.

“ Ray and I were friends for a long time and I was blessed to talk to him last month. He gave me the book AS A MAN THINKETH and also DESIDERATA which were shared on occasions with Dottie in our earlier years. I have picked them up a number of times and Thought of our discussions and all of us many times. I had good times with his parents and sisters and my heart goes out to Bunny and Susan. May and know peace now.

“ Ray's credence: "Every day, laugh about something, cry about something, think about something." That he did. A few days before he passed, he told me he was happy--and we laughed about something. He lived, laughed, cried, and loved until the end. Have memories of a daring young man who rode a motorcycle across country to see me in CA; a stubborn young man who refused to call for help when his infamous pink jeep broke down; a loving man who called me within minutes after my father's death and knew exactly what to say . . . so much more. But his laughter was contagious and his insights acute. Now you're at peace, finally, free from pain, and restored, dear Ray. May that help console those of us left behind. Dori
