

Rebecca Ann Yockey "Becky"

September 14, 2018 - September 14, 2018

Rebecca Ann Ankney Yockey

Daughter

Becky was a loving and attentive daughter who grew more fond of Mom and Dad as the years passed and considered it a joy to spend time with them—whether as a casual drop-in several times a week, or at the beach or camping in the woods.

She loved athletics and was on the Boone High School swim and dive team. After attending Valencia College she worked as a dental assistant.

Sister

Becky was the youngest of the Ankney children, and was the ring leader in trouble-making-or so her siblings declared! She set the standard for daring exploits such as para-sailing and motorcycle riding. She was very thoughtful of her siblings and parents, and never missed sending greetings on the special occasions in their lives.

Wife and Mother

Becky and her husband Steve Yockey shared many interests. They enjoyed camping, cruising, and motor cycle riding. Steve's wedding gift to Becky set the tone for their fun-filled life together—a motorcycle! Fortunately, Steve liked animals because Becky had three dogs and a cat, and never met an animal that she did not want to adopt.

On their wedding day and every anniversary there after Steve recited this pledge to Becky:

I asked the Lord to bless me with an angel in my life, a woman I could treasure as a loving friend and wife, and so you came from heaven as the answer to my prayer, and changed my world forever through the precious love we share.

Steve found a copy of his pledge to Becky in her wallet.

Being the mother of Mason was the joy of her life. She considered him her crowning achievement and cherished him beyond words.

Friend

Becky had friends from all avenue of life—Harley-Davidson Club, neighbors, and school friends. She considered friends to be one of life's greatest gifts.

Child of God

But most of all, Becky was a child of God. The words of Randy Alcorn in his book, Heaven, express our feelings:

“If you're a child of God, you do not just “go around once” on Earth. You don't get just one earthly life. You get another—one far better and without end. You'll inhabit the New Earth! You'll live with the God you cherish and the people you love as an undying person on an undying Earth.”

A memorial service will be held on Saturday 29, 2018 at Downtown Baptist Church, 120 E. Pine Street Orlando, Florida 32801 at 4pm.

Donations in memory of Becky to her son Mason Williams.

“ Becky is one of my dearest friends, and I still can't believe she has left us. I've know Becky since we graduated from high school. We hung out together through all those fun years.....Rosie O'Grady's....J J Whispers....Spit...and all those hangouts. We watched each other get married. I watched Mason come into this world. Becky and I basically grew up together. Since I moved to TN, we've only seen each other occasionally, but always stayed in touch with FB. In fact, she's the one that told me to Join FB, mostly because she had just started dating Steve and she want to share pictures with me. And whenever I did run into Becky, while vacationing in Orlando, it was like we have never been apart! She is one of those dear friends that you just know is always there for you, even if you don't see each other often. My heart is broken that her life was too short. My heart breaks for Becky's family. But I have peace knowing how happy she was and I know she is in a wonderful place. This is not a "goodbye" Becky.....I will see you later sweet friend❤️❤️❤️ I love you!!!!
