Such a caring man with a heart of gold. Ray lived his life at full speed with no since we all knew how much he loved Nascar and the Races. This is optional of course. Hope everyone can make it out to say our final goodbyes to Reinaldo "Ray" Fojaco. Thank you all

“ Lamento mucho esta enorme perdida y sintiendo el dolor que su familia están pasando, quiero compartir la esperanza de que muy pronto "va haber una resurrección de parte de Dios", como nos dice la Biblia en Hechos 24:15. Ánimo y fortaleza para toda su familia en estos momentos dolorosos. ”

“ When the enemy death strikes your grief can be great. It's never the right time to say goodbye to a loved one. Death too to many seems to be a part of life. It's during times such as these that we can find comfort in the Lord's Prayer in Matthew 6:9, 10 ~ "Our Father in the heavens, let your name be sanctified. Let your kingdom come. Let your will take place, as in heaven, also upon earth". Only God's (Psalms 83:18) Kingdom can bring peace, happiness, perfect health, and everlasting life. “ My condolences to the family of Mr. Fojacol am very sorry to hear about your loss. In this trying time, May you find comfort in God's Word the Bible, as you draw ever closer to our Heavenly Father Jehovah God. Your love ones ARE asleep. Add Acts 24:15 there is going to be a "resurrection hope". As God's Word the Bible speaks of a time when you will and can see your love ones once again. Forever on a Paradise Earth! My condolences, peace and blessings, my deepest sympathy. Jas.4:8, 2Thess.2:16,17, Psm.34:18 ,

“ I am at a loss for words as my heart breaks over the loss of such a great man, friend, dad. So many happy memories, funny memories. Rey always was willing lend a helping hand, very giving of himself. He drove me to Florida because I wanted to relocate when I was four months pregnant and when I couldn't do the drive back to NY, he drove my car back for me. I didn't relocate, but he did. Then years later He took me in with my kids (3) when I finally decided to relocate. He treated my family like we were his family. I was his "sister". I miss seeing him again and so sad that we missed the opportunity to reconnect this holiday. Raelyn - you are his princess and the joy of his life, hold on to the memories. Cristina, Desiree - you were his girls and he loved you unconditionally. Norma you were the love of his life - through ups and downs you always remained connected. I love you all and my prayers are with you and the family! May the peace of God that surpasses our understanding ungulf you through this time of pain and sorrow. May hold on His promise to see you through.

“ Rey had been a constant presence in my life since I was 4 years old. He was always there whenever I needed him to be. He treated me like I was his own daughter. He took me to a father-daughter dance when I was 11 years old with the Girls Scouts. He spent all night building a home-made go-kart for my 5th grade Soap Box Derby and came to watch me race. He also taught me how to drive. I cannot bear the thought of him being gone. My heart aches for my little sister and our family who hearts are just broken. I love you and I wish I could see you again.

“ My heart is aching horribly with this tragedy. I grew up with Orengo/Fojaco Family since I was 6 years old. I have alot of memories even when his daughter Raelynn was born. Boy, wasnt he happy! He was kind, funny, loves to party and dance. I can go on with his funny character.

I dont understand why this happened. Your life was taken way too soon. Only God knows. We have to keep moving and live life like you would tell your children to do. We will hold all the fond memories of you with tears and laughter. We will never forget you ever. May you rest in peace in paradise. Love you always. Kasey

“ My heart aches over this tragedy. He was my dad for over 26 years and I loved him dearly. He treated me as if I was his real daughter and I put him through a lot in my teenage years and he never gave up on me even though I was a total brat. So many life lessons he has taught me that I will pass down to my children. He was grandpa, dad & friend and he will never be forgotten and always missed.
