Rene Alfredo Hernandez

January 25, 1933 – September 1, 2024

Rene Alfredo Hernandez, 91, passed away peacefully on September 1, 2024, in Orlando, Florida. Born on January 25, 1933, in Havana, Cuba, Rene was one of three children born to Camilo and Lutgarda Hernandez. As a teenager, he endured many hardships when he left Cuba, seeking a better life in the United States. Despite the challenges, Rene worked tirelessly across a variety of industries to create opportunities and a bright future for himself and his family.

Rene was the embodiment of hard work, resilience, and unwavering commitment. His dedication was evident both in his professional life and as a devoted father to his five children. Known for his exceptional work ethic, he often labored long hours to ensure the well-being and security of his loved ones, whom he cherished above all else. A man of diverse passions, Rene had a deep love for animals and spent much of his life caring for horses, goats, cattle, and sheep, finding joy and purpose in his connection with nature.

He is survived by his beloved sisters, Olga Hernandez and Elsa Herrera, and his five children: Renesito Hernandez, Alfredo Rene Hernandez, Jacqueline Hortencia Jordan, Steven Hernandez, and Luz De Maria Hernandez-Simmonds. Rene also leaves behind a large and loving family, including grandchildren, great-grandchildren, in-laws, nieces, nephews, and many dear friends and neighbors who will forever hold his memory in their hearts.

Rene's life was a testament to sacrifice, love, and dedication to both family and friends. His legacy of perseverance and love will continue to inspire all who knew him, and his memory will be cherished for generations to come.
