“ I will never forget the great memories. Liming under the almond trees in Couva Sec, walking the whole of Couva Main road for taxis every evening even in the soaking rain, those awesome house parties... even though we drifted apart over the years I rooted for you all the way... Its never easy leaving all you know behind to start a new life in a new country and I am glad I got the chance to link up with you in NY... I cheered on your every success. I felt proud of you when you bought your new Camry, and your new house, I cheered on your joy you showed in ur HVAC job. I even told my wife how awesome your Lego collection was, hoping that one day I would get to hang with you again in Orlando.

Rest in peace my brother

“ We stopped just being friends so long ago and became family. Thanks for all the good times and wonderful memories. You will forever be missed and never be forgotten. The world is a little darker without you here but I know you are watching over and protecting us from above. Rest easy my brother until we meet again. Love you always. #85babies

“ So very sad and surreal at the same time. Riad was such an easy going person and one of my first Friends in Lower 6 when I was new to the school. He is just welcoming and easy to be around. He will be missed dearly. May God grant his family all the peace and strength

Riad and my brother are the same age. Riad had been a brother to some of my male friends who had no blood brothers. He was always kind, considerate and knew how to lift the spirits of those around him. He was the light of any lime, and we all know his passion for cars and cooking.

It hurts me that I will never link with Riad again in this realm. I pray for strength and comfort for his siblings, his parents, his colleagues and all of his friends, especially those in his closest circle.

Riad, my dear brother, I miss you and love you. Now, rest.

“ Sincerest wishes of comfort for the family at this difficult time, may you all find peace in prayer and remembrance. Riad was my school mate back home. He was always a fun, happy guy who was loved by everyone around him. His smile could light up a room. Sad to hear of his passing, may God rest his soul and keep him in eternal peace. 💙
