A beloved father, grandfather, great-grandfather, and a dedicated serviceman. After 37 years of honorable service in the military, including the Air Force and the National Guard, he touched countless lives with his unwavering commitment to our country.

Born with a passion for music, Dad found joy in jazz, filling our home with its soulful melodies. His high-definition stereo system was not just a piece of equipment; it was a portal to the world of rhythms and tunes that he cherished deeply.

In addition to his military service, Dad had a fulfilling career as an Aircraft Maintenance Engineer, working for Pan Am and American Airlines. His expertise in mechanics was matched only by his vast knowledge of history and science, making him a wellspring of information and a source of inspiration for all who knew him.

A true hobbyist, Dad loved model trains, spending countless hours building

As a devoted father, to Chanel Howell, Alexis Brown-Allen, Cynthia Whittaker and Shaun Floyd. He nurtured the values of love and resilience, leaving a legacy that extends to his 18 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren.
