TAKING FLIGHT TO A BEAUTIFUL WORLD

Some time in the near/distant future, someone may ask the question: Who was Richard Samuels?

Brief Summery --

Richard was a jewel given to the late Edward and Emma Lee. He was a son, sibling, Husband and father of two wonderful sons. He was an uncle, cousin and beloved family member- and so much more. These are just a few accolades of the life he carried...

Bobby/Richard has never taken the fast track- race cars, moto cycles or even running a marathon. He drive until sometime ago, when it was decided to take a slower mode of travel as he embarked his journey. By doing so, he could periodically stop and smell the roses or marvel when he saw the color purple. Hopefully enjoying the beauty of God's creation.

To whom I gave love and gave it back!

If his parting has left a void, fill it remembering the joys we shared. Especially the hugs, kisses and of course the laughter, which showed true love. These are the things that's worth cherishing.

Now that he is gone, release him and let him go He has so many things to see and do. Don't tie yourselves to him with tears and grief, but, be thankful for the beautiful years you shared. Love and happiness is what you brought him. Now it's time for him to travel the journey along. though, not alone. God is forever with him. He promised never to leaves us or forsake us. He also promised, that we would see one another again. What good news, On that day, I will greet you with a gigantic smile and arms wide opened. Then the children will celebrate together. There will be no end. Therefore, keep laughing, keep smiling, knowing that I am in good hands.. The almighty.
