“ I can't even begin to imagine the hurt that his kids are feeling....
Richie was always a good man even when we were in our 20's....
He has and always was with a smile on his face.... This world will be a little bit darker without him here.... I can't believe he is gone but he will forever be looking over his babies and the ones he loves.... Rest well Richie (Molie) inside joke 😞

“ What a great loss I am very sorry. My deepest condolences to the family of Amy and the Richie family. I still can not believe it, for me personally Richie was more than a friend or co-worker it was like my big brother I learned a lot from him his simplicity, humility, great charisma, honesty, loyalty no matter how I got to work if I arrived tired or in a bad mood you made me laugh, how we took care of our backs, the jokes that we made among ourselves, all the adventures we had, and the most important tremendous human being above all, good father and husband. I will always remember it in my heart and a good example to follow, bro I will see you again in glory R.I.P

“ My memories about my friend Richie Molina. I am a mechanic for the company that Richie previously worked for. The news of Richies passing was heart wrenching for me. He was very laid back, easy going, polite and very respectful. He was the forklift driver that would never complain about his forklift. Even though his machine was the oldest, ragedy machine in the warehouse Cisco Kid.was the forklift nane.. He always smiled and said everything is running great. I could always recognize Richie even when he was.all the way across the warehouse. He had this distinctive walk that could not be replicated. My deepest condolences to the family and friends of this awesome man.

He will be missed by all.

“Richie was quiet but his heart said lots. I remember enjoying the "family" get togethers no matter what the occasion was and Richie just laughing. He was always nice and polite, loved Amy and the kids and showed it in his actions. As young a married couple they were and with all that life brings I knew how much he loved his family. He will be truly missed by us and especially his little family. Richie see you later until we meet again. I will be here for Amy and the kids as much as she needs. You took care of her and that speaks volumes. I will never forget your smile.
