

Robert "Beto" Gene Trujillo, Jr.

July 1, 1997 - October 25, 2021

Robert "Beto" Gene Trujillo Jr. passed away unexpectedly in the early morning hours of Monday, Oct. 25, 2021 in Orlando, Florida. He was 24 years old.

An avid sports and music fan with an appetite for nacho cheese Doritos, he was affectionately known by family and friends as Beto, Lil Rob and 00Smooth.

Rob is survived by parents Carmen Trujillo and Robert Trujillo Sr., younger brother Joseph Trujillo, and younger sister Aliana Trujillo, all of Orlando, along with grandmother Gloria Trujillo of California and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.

He was preceded in death by grandmother Carmen Rubio, grandfather Paul Trujillo, aunt Sarah Tyson, and Optimus, the family's beloved blue pit bull dog.

Rob was born in San Diego, California on July 1, 1997. He moved to Orlando with his parents in late 1998 and grew up playing youth football with the South Orlando Braves and Conway Falcons while attending Lake Como Elementary and Howard Middle schools.

He graduated from Boone High School with a full head of curly hair in 2015, where he spent falls playing football for the Braves along the offensive and defensive lines.

Rob was a lifelong fan of the San Diego Chargers and USC Trojans football teams, Chicago Bulls and University of North Carolina basketball teams, and New York Mets baseball team.

Rob was heralded by close friends as an NBA 2K video game legend. He took great pride in rooting for UNC during basketball games vs. Duke, much to the dismay of his dad, brother and Uncle JT.

His passion for music spawned releases on streaming services in recent years as a rapper under the 00Smooth moniker.

A Celebration of Life service will be held at A Community Funeral Home & Sunset Cremations in Orlando, located at 910 W. Michigan Street, on Monday, Nov. 1, 2021 from 4-8 p.m.
