

Robert Howie Calderwood Jr.

April 30, 1934 - February 3, 2016

Robert Howie Calderwood Jr. passed on February 3rd 2016. He was a loving and devoted Husband, supportive Father, fun and warm Grandpa and dedicated friend. Rob was a decorated US Marine having served honorably in the Korean Conflict. He volunteered at the VA Orlando center and was closely aligned with the DAV, having giving over 20,000 hours of his time to helping others in need.

Robert was of Scottish heritage and enjoyed the music of people like Robert Burns, he would often listen for hours to the Bagpipes while relaxing and reading.

He touched many lives and once you met Robert, you were his friend and he would do anything for you. He wanted a simple, no fuss end to his life and as he did when living, he wanted the focus on others and not himself.

Please say goodbye to Robert in your own way and know if he could, he would be helping someone, somewhere, to make their life easier.
