

Robert (Bob) Wesley Hall

January 21, 1953 - June 29, 2025

It is with a heavy heart that we announce the passing of Robert (Bob) Wesley Hall, loving husband, father, grandfather, and friend. Robert passed away peacefully on June 29, 2025, in Orlando, Florida at the age of 72.

Bob was the steady hand of every family project, the warm laugh at every gathering, and the man who never hesitated to lend his many skills or his heart to someone in need.

Bob was a man who could fix anything- and usually did. Known affectionately as a real-life MacGyver, his legacy endures in every project he completed.

He was a humble man always willing to pause and connect with everyone he met.

For Bob, his yard wasn't just a place to work-it was where he found peace, purpose, and joy.

Bob's legacy is carried on by his wife, Debra; his daughter, Alexandria Hall Merced; and his two grandchildren, Johnathan and Vincent. He is survived by his two sisters, Donna Page and Patricia Sayyah.

Bob was predeceased by his mother, Gertrude Hall; his father, Harold Hall; and his brothers, John Michael Hall and Thomas David Hall.

Though Bob has left us, his memory will forever remain in the gardens he tended and in the hearts of those who loved him.

Those who wish to donate in Bob's memory may do so at the Alzheimer's & Dementia Resource Center (ADRC) <https://adrccares.org>

“ In sadness but with warm memories we say good bye to a long-time friend, Bob Hall. We shared the bond of having the same couple’s name: Debbie and Robert. And we each had a single child around the same age growing up in our neighborhood.

Bob was an easy going guy with good humor who was always friendly. He would stop his truck if he saw you in the yard and begin a conversation. There was always a good story to hear or a suggestion on maintaining your yard or home. He was our neighborhood “helpful hardware man” from Ace. Years ago he helped us build our screened-in-porch that we have enjoyed every since. Bob took well deserved pride in his yard which we admired every time we passed by.

For a long time he joked about taking us to his favorite restaurant, a place called Bob’s. We finally all went together. The waitress and staff greeted him with familiarity. It was a casual down-to-earth place just like you would expect, just like Bob himself. The food was simple, good, and satisfying. Perfect in its way.

Bob Hall is gone but just like the yard he tended and the home he cared for, Debbie and Alex flourish in the legacy of his memory.

Sharing love, our hearts are with the Hall family during this time.

Debbie, Robert, and Blake Griffin.

“ This feels like a dream and still doesn't feel real. I don't know that it ever will. Uncle Bob, you have no idea how missed you are already! If I could catch all the love you gave and trap it in a bottle, it would be over pouring! Ayden really misses you. This has been tough for him but I remind him that it's ok and you're doing fine. That you're still close by! I hope that you and Ryan can look down on all of us from heaven and say..."That's mine! Thats my family!!!" while smiling ear to ear and feeling so proud to have such a great family. I hate to make everyone else in heaven jealous but I know I will be looking up saying the same! Continue to be the great man you are. I promise to be the support Debbie needs and to continue to be there for her! I also promise to carry on our Cilantro nights together!! Love you, uncle Bob!! rest peacefully.
