“ *When the enemy death strikes your grief can be great. It's never the right time to say goodbye to a loved one. Death too to many seems to be a part of life. It's during times such as these that we can find comfort in the Lord's Prayer in Matthew 6:9, 10 ~ "Our Father in the heavens, let your name be sanctified. Let your kingdom come. Let your will take place, as in heaven, also upon earth". Only God's (Psalms 83:18) Kingdom can bring peace, happiness, perfect health, and everlasting life. “ If there is a heaven, Robbie is there smiling that smile we all knew so well. I remember looking over at him across the table during the show at the Riviera Resort/Casino in Las Vegas, the night we saw Chuck Norris four tables away from our group. That look on his face and that smile, I will never forget. Right now, he's getting a party together with all our absent friends and loved ones: Jean H., Russ S., Scott S., Kent S., Rey H., Wilbur K., Evelyn H., and Tracy K. to name a few. We will always love you, Robbie. Thank you for loving us for this short while.

“ Robbie was always fun. He worried about everyone and loved being with people. He had beautiful blond hair and always looked sharp. He was a real hoot in drag for Halloween. Going to miss him.

“ Rob was one of the few people I can call a true friend. In fact, even though we were out of touch with one another for 20 years, I will say he was my best friend and still is. It's such a shame the way he was treated by his adoptive parents and sister the last 25 years of his life. Shame on them. I'll have to pray very hard for God to help me forgive them someday. But that won't happen for quite some time. He & I had such great fun our sophomore year @ Worthington Christian school, where I got to know him really well. Growing up close to him was the best !! we knew each other since 7th grade. i am so saddened & shocked by his death; I'm so glad we got to talk one more time the morning of his passing. "I love you man!!" was how we ended each and every phone call to each other. I'll miss talking with him so much. He lives on in my heart <3
