“ Merry Christmas Uncle Bob. The other day I met Gonz by Jack, and he told me this year we would miss you more than last year. How true he was! I'm wearing the Santa Tshirt you gave me back in 2014. It still fits!! Hope the birthday party for Jesus is going well! Tell Grabby Mummy has perfected the black cake and pastelles. Wish both her and Grandpa a Happy Christmas.

“ Can't believe a whole year has passed. It seemed like just yesterday you called to find out how I was because too many days passed since we last talked. You were always the one to follow up. Now not a day goes by when I don't think of you. Now you are resting in eternal peace and God knows you needed it. I love you and miss you Uncle Bob. Give Grabby my love and pray for us, so our whole family can be reunited in that blessed place of heaven.

“ Went to Stamford Bridge last weekend and saw the stadium our great football player Messi played at multiple times. I can only remember our many conversations about his technique and that the only reason he was my favourite was because he was yours. Immediately took out my phone to send you a pic of his tshirt in the change room ❤️ Bob Bob you are missed more than you could've imagined

“ To Michelle, Therese, Nicole and their families, my deepest condolences! There is much I wish I can say but truly empty at the moment, if I am feeling this way I can only imagine what you are going through as you deal with your grief!

We all loved Bobby, he was a kind person, strong in his faith and always put others before himself. Despite migrating, we would pick up where we left off as if we saw each other yesterday. His memories will surely keep you strong as you move forward. Again my deepest condolences. I will remember Bobby and yourselves in my prayers. Again my deepest condolences. I can just see him singing "Afternoon Delight" and dancing, playing cards in your gallery as we listened to American top 40 Saturday and Sunday afternoons,
Farewell my friend , until we meet again

Bobby, there will be an empty chair at the church door, where you sat every Sunday and sold our Catholic News. I will miss your smile and your greeting, your singing while you picked up collection. I know you loved God so much, that is the reason he took you home to him so suddenly. You will be missed by many of us at St Andrew of Kaggwah. Rest in peace in your heavenly kingdom.

“ Bobby was a gentle giant. He was kind, loving, generous, funny, and he would do anything for his family especially his nieces and nephews. He was also a good cook. Bobby welcomed me into San Fernando and his family's home with my very first meal which he made himself - sada roti and pumpkin (with shrimps). You brought life, laughter and joy to the hearts of many. Rest now Bobby, safe in the arms of your God and Heavenly Father. Eternal peace and eternal joy is yours now.

On behalf of the Gocool family please accept our sympathy. Bobby was the most gentle giant of a human I knew. His hugs were contagious his smile could take away whatever pain you were going through. I have known Bobby over 43 years I take comfort in knowing the love and friendship my husband and I shared with him is an everlasting one.

To his siblings stay strong and know he loved you all unconditionally.
