

Robert E. Jaspon

April 9, 1965 - May 16, 2016

Robert Emerson Jaspon, 51, of Orlando Fl., passed away peacefully on Monday, May 16, 2016, at his home. Born in Natick, Massachusetts to Ann Kersti Lundburg and Robert MacDonald; was extremely loving and proud of his four children Casey of South Carolina and Lizzie, Mia and Amanda of Orlando, Fl. He was a loving husband of Agatha Aniko Jaspon. He will be forever missed by his brothers Scott & Jeremiah Jaspon and his sisters Sarah Cline, Johnna Lobato, Andrea Armas and Pamela Chisling.

He was a loyal employee of Ernst & Young for over 18 years and loved his job and was proud of the services he provided for his employers and customers.

In his spare time, he enjoyed cooking for his family and friends and keeping us all laughing with his corny jokes. Anyone who met Robert knew he was passionate about his Boston sports!

We love and miss you, Rob! You were the “Wind Beneath Our Wings”.

“ So sad, so young and still full of life. I was just working with him the week before I heard and I couldn't believe it. Whether at work or play he was a good guy all around. His passion as a sports fan was only superseded by his passion for his kids. Living in the NY/NJ area is not a happy place for a Boston fan so he was finally run out of town ㄟ(ㄒ)_/_ ㄤ I can remember playing softball with Rob ...so picture a him pitching with a cigar in his mouth. I share your loss

“ I was so sad to hear about Rob's passing. Although I haven't spoken to him since he moved to Florida, we worked in the NJ offices together for many years and had a lot of conversations over the years. He was a genuinely nice man and a good person and he will be missed. I still get a good laugh when I think about his cell phone ringing whenever he left his desk. That ring tone!

“ Rob was one of the nicest individuals I ever met and had the privileged to work with for 11 years. I remember when we traveled to Philadelphia to perform a Disaster Recovery test, he had this GPS and was able to change the voice to be Dr. Hannibal Lecter. The entire ride home, I had to listen to this thing speak in a creepy voice that I thought was kinda corny, but Rob thought it was the coolest thing ever! Naturally messing with him because he was a New England sports fan was always great as well.... You will be missed in this world Mr. Jaspon..... Rest in Peace

“ I heard the sad news about Rob the other day. I am truly heartbroken on this news. Rob was a great guy to work with and a Great Manager whom I had the privilege to work for a few years. As good as he was a Co-Worker and as a manager I feel he was probably an even better father. He always talked about the 4 kids all the time and all the stuff the kids used to do and their accomplishments. Since he moved down to Orlando I had missed the Yankees vs. Red Sox discussions & the New England vs NY sports barbs we used to trade. I will never forget his face years back when he came back to the office from 2 weeks of vacation with Aggie and the kids and we decorated his cube from top to bottom in Yankee Wallpaper, a Yankee Mouse pad, Yankee notebooks, and player bobble heads. He had a good laugh over that. I want to offer my Condolences to the family and the four kids. E&Y lost a great Employee and the world lost a great person. God Bless your family during this difficult time.

“ I have known Rob for many years at EY and he was an all around great guy. I still remember him showing me his pictures of his Fairfield home after it got flooded not once, twice but I think three times. He took it all in stride. He also shared stories of Mia and he was always so very proud of how well she played in softball. He loved being a dad.

Such a loss to all of us to know he's gone. My thoughts and prayers are with his family.

“ I'll miss him telling me about his girls softball and soccer games , the incredible meals he would cook for us as a family, the way he would play with my kids, the fun we had watching the Patriots games. I'm so grateful for the time he spent living with us and the closeness his daughters now with our kids because of that time . We used to kid around that he was my manny. He literally helped me with everything; cooking, laundry, the kids, fixing things or just being someone to talk to. He was simply an amazing person. Someone I will never forget and will forever hold in my heart.
