“ Robert was loved by everyone, i loved him as family not only family but a nephew, my kids always said he was their uncle not by blood but because he was family, he showed my oldest son to fish and they went fishing all the time that was their thing together, he always found a way to help me calm my youngest down when I need it, he would see me struggling with my youngest and he would take over, he was that way helping always, i love you Robert and i will always miss you 😞
