Hey, I am now learning of this event. Please accept my condolences. I remember your dad and husband very well. As a matter of fact on 16th Mar I was in Coglan Dam and as I passed the house I was wondering if Robert was still alive. His peers, my dad and my father in law, both died a while back. In fact another former headmaster, Lochan, died a few weeks ago in NY. I would be happy to hear from one of you. My email is mjhharripaul2@aol.com. Last I saw Roma was around 1990 in GT.

“ You have my deepest sympathy and empathy in you loss. During such a time I was greatly encouraged by a promise I found in the Bible at Revelation 21:3, 4 where a time will come when we will not experience the suffering that come from this type of tragedy. With this thought in mind I invite you to visit www.jw.org, there you will find more information on Gods promise of the resurrection.

“ God will give to those comfort for this time of pain. Soon he will remove all the tears that causes pain and death he will take it away forever. Rev.21:3,4

“ In every culture, grieving families appreciate receiving comfort. The Creator of life also gives comfort to such mourning ones. The Christian apostle Paul stated in the Bible, that God “who comforts us in all our trials, so that we may be able to comfort others in any sort of trial.” (2 Corinthians 1: 3, 4) True, divine help does not eliminate the pain but it can make it easier to bear. The Bible teaches that all those in the memorial tombs will be resurrected. Please read John 5:28, 29 in your Bible for comfort and hope. www.jw.org
