

Roman Taras Skrobko

March 9, 1948 - July 28, 2023

Roman Taras Skrobko, loving husband, brother & friend to so many, died peacefully at home after a 4 year war with colorectal cancer on July 28th, 2023.

Co-founder of Florida's oldest independent Record Store, East West Records (est.1971), Roman loved music, fishing, & his beautiful critters. He always had a way with plants & animals & kids.

Roman was, 1st & foremost, Ukrainian-American. Born in a displaced persons camp to his Ukrainian refugee parents, Oleksa & Halyna, in Berchtesgaden, Germany in 1948. His family were among the last to enter the U.S. via Ellis Island. The family made their way to Los Angeles, CA. In 1970, met his future Ukrainian-American wife, Hanna. They were together till the end.

He is survived by loving wife Hanna & big sister Nina.

He touched so many lives & will be missed by anyone who was fortunate enough to know him.

Memorial service will be held at A Community Funeral Home & Sunset Cremations August 17th, 6-8pm. In lieu of flowers, bring a plant...a living thing. Or consider donating to the American Cancer Society, the ASPCA, St. Jude

Children's Research Hospital, or Shriners Hospital in his name.

“ We miss you Roman, as our former neighbor on Padgett Circle. You and Hanna made us feel so welcome to the neighborhood. So many memories. I remember Roman calling me one Sunday morning when I was unknowingly (damn tech) blasting Brian Ferry More Than This over and over outdoors. He said " Hey Kathy, I love Brian Ferry, but can you turn it down?" He was special.
