“ When I think of Tata five things come to mind. One, showing your love through cooking. Whether grilling, passing down tradition with hallacas making, or (and I say this as a Southerner) my absolute favorite cole slaw ever, you showed us love by providing us wonderful meals and I am grateful to have shared them with you. Two, that you beautified our space with your plants. It was a joy to share them with you and talk with you about them. Three, your love of music shared with us by singing Happy Birthday in booming beautiful Italian. Your little bit of a goof ball personality peaking through with each lyric. Fourth memory is being able to give you a surprise "good morning" when I saw your van at a Flipper's on my way to work. It was great to start my day and I cherish the smile on your face at the surprise. Lastly, for the sake of brevity but no where near the number of memories I cherish, is riding The Hulk roller coaster with you at Universal Studios. Not just the experience of riding the ride itself but also, waiting in line and we were just chatting back and forth and I realized that we had no awkward silences. Thank you for that. To the Tomasetti's and everyone who cares about them, I send you hugs so strong that it helps start the process of putting any broken pieces back in place. I love you all “ Foremost my most sincere condolences to all who love Rony as I do. Of my greatest world travels was to spend 6 months in La Casa Tomasetti Maracay Aragua Venezuela of 1993. Floriano and Rony insisted I go to live in their home - and understand where they came from. After a year of me caring for my neighbor's children as-if they were kin I was recognized as benign. My life has been greatly fortified by investing in profound friendships, Rony has always been in my heart. -- I could author a book here - but in short I feel your loss, may his soul rest in peace with the saints.

“ He used to put soo much holy water/oil on our foreheads and just say a quick prayer for us everytime we saw him, and then we would be like “tataa too much too much😂” and then we all would laugh about it
