“Rosamond was always open to drop in visits... Once in Chicago she was still unpacking but served a great roast beef dinner when we went to visit. Another time she prepared a lovely dinner while Ralph was at her feet hooking up new kitchen plumbing ! She had beautiful complexion forever and was the consummate hostess.rolling with the punches. We finally gave away the infamous black cat Halloween costume she made..

“Rosamond was a loving, creative and giving mother, mother-in -law and grandmother. She delighted in the lives of her children, their spouses and her grandchildren. She donated many hours to the service of her churches and communities where she lived. We were blessed to have her in our lives for so many years.
