

Rose Marie Estime

November 8, 1956 - June 8, 2020

Rose Marie Estime was born November 8th 1956 in Maissade, Haiti to the parents of Larose Francois and Honore Estime. Although coming from a large family, 10 children including herself, she always managed to stand out among the rest. As an adult Rose Marie established a successful career as the Chief of Service and Operations for the Bureau of Haiti. She fell in love with Armand Raphael and had four beautiful children, Dimitri, Allan, Valerie and Gaelle before his death in 1997. Soon after, she relocated to the U.S. in the efforts of pursuing a better life for her family in the mists of government changes and the passing of her beloved, Armand.

Rose Marie had a strong belief in God, established in her since she was a child. Once reaching the states those values continued; she attended church regularly, becoming an active and cherished member in the church. Rose Marie worked diligently to provide for her family, and for years she did this successfully. However her health eventually catching up to her causing multiple illnesses. She suffered for many years with this pain until her body could no longer go on. Although she is lost to us on earth, we know she is with God, and finally set free from it all. May her body rest in peace, as her spirit lives on.

“And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain:

for the former things are passed away.”

-Revelations 21:4
