“ My grandmother sweethearted person,I remember when her and my grandfather lived in alabama. We would go visit. She would make homemade biscuits every morning,chickens running around in the back and she would grab the eggs and cook them on this wood burning stove.The memories of my Grandmother will always there ,she is with God now and resting in a better place.I love you Grandma.

“ I send my love and my condolences to my family. Minnie and I met when we lived in apt# 3032 A&B and from that time on we became family. Her Moma became mine when you would go to her house she wanted to feed you you want supenteet. She always had a smile. I will always remember moma. I can write a letter but just know I love you all, hold on family God got you in his arms. RIP moma the angles is singing and Jesus is smiling.
