“ Ruthy’s last words to me were “thanks for spending the day with me “ I was there the next day but she never even acknowledged that I was . It hurts me so much that I didn’t kiss her good bye like we always did because she on mask and all kind of things connected and because up to the day she pass I was hoping for a miracle wasn’t losing faith that she would get up from that bed and plan a next party again... I’ll always ask Becky why this girl love so much party..... and she wouldn’t volunteer to cook 😭 put would provide almost everything for the party. No matter who she fight with in a matter of minutes sometimes she’ll be talking to you like nothing ever happen. She was always there for us and her friends too. We will miss her so much! She will have an eternity to party in paradise!!!❤️

I am so lucky to have known a wonderful woman like you. Instead of saying goodbye to you, I will say hello in advance for when we met again. Rest in Peace*

“ My deepest sympathy to the family of our beloved Ruth Alvarez-Morgan. Nothing can ease the sorrow of your departure from this life. But every day you are wished a peaceful journey in the arms of the Savior Jesus, until we meet in Paradise. You are missed but we will take comfort in remembering the memories of the times you spent together sharing your dreams, hope, laughter, beliefs, kindness, faith, ideas, jokes, talents, love, dedication and professionalism. You prepared excellent tax returns--I got my refunds!

Your surviving uncles and nieces will miss you: Jose Santana, Moises Carmona, Sonia Rivera-Ledesma, Candida Santana, Anita Santana, and Lucia Carrasquillo. Rest in Peace.

“ My beloved sister Ruth, I can't express to you how much I miss you. I remember holding you in my arms and taking turns with my brothers and sis just to take care of you. You were the sunshine of our new life living in Mon Bijou and you brought great joy to me and my family when you officiated my first born Luis Jr. wedding. I will always remember you for being so sweet and caring to me and family. Till we meet again my little sister. We will miss your crazy jokes, but I know your Sisters Becky and Liz will continue with them. Love always, your brother Luis Frontal and Family.

*The angels looked down from heaven one night
They searched for miles afar,
And deep within the distance
They could see a shining star.*

*They knew that very instant
That the star was theirs to gain,
So they took you up to heaven
Forever to remain.*

*Look down on us from heaven
Keep us free from hurt and pain,
You'll always be within my heart
Until we meet again.....Ruthie; TiTi - Ms. Ting*
