

Ryan T. Haslam

October 16, 1985 - September 1, 2018

Ryan Haslam was called to God on the morning of Saturday, September 1st 2018 via a car accident.

Ryan was born October 16 1985 in North Little Rock, Arkansas. Ryan graduated from Jordan High School (Durham, North Carolina) in 2004. He moved to Orlando, Florida and started working for the Walt Disney World Company in 2010 as a Costume Coordinator.

In his spare time he enjoyed running marathons, rooting for the Tar Heels & Boomer Sooners, and being a General Mr. Fix It at work and in his home. Ryan Haslam married the love of his life, a fellow costumer coordinator at WDW, Kimberly (Strickland) in 2014.

Ryan is survived by his wife Kimberly (formerly Wooster, Ohio), parents Martha & Steve Haslam (Homosassa, Florida), and brother Chad.

Donations can be made to the surviving spouse:

“ Ryan was an amazing person who always took care of his cast. He always had a great sense of humor despite my banter with him. I was always happy to see him and knowing that he would take care of you at work. You will be sorely missed, Ryan. Much love and God bless!

“ Sending our deepest sympathies and love to Martha, Steve, Chad and Kimberly from Ryan's childhood neighbors in Durham. The Walters were so sad to learn of his passing. Ryan was a bright light in the neighborhood and all the kids loved playing with him. He always seemed to be outside--and barefoot, even in winter. He was happy-go-lucky and friendly to all. We love you Ryan! Your next-door neighbors: Jane, Mark, Jenny and Allison

“ Ryan, you were a powerful presence at DAK. Today, we looked around the CR and saw that you are still actively with us. The work you did, the signs you creatively made, and the pride you showed in your work will be a daily reminder of you - the man who quite literally, changed our lives. My world is better because of you.
