“ You were working at Disney in Orlando and we visited the park as a family of three. Fortunately you had the day off and joined us at the hotel pool for the day. I remember chatting and catching up. I think this was around the time you were dating Brianna. (I think). I enjoyed that day with you a lot. We talked about fitness and protein and a bunch of other stuff. I have a couple of memories prior to that -- you, Ann, and Heather brought your dad to Phoenix to watch the Washington Redskins play against the AZ Cardinals. That was his favorite team. We drove down to your hotel to have a visit. A few months later, you and your mom visited our family in Scottsdale for a few days. Like I said on the card for the flowers, our time with you was short but special. And your time on earth was short but special to way more people than the three of us. It's hard to believe you're not in FL living a wonderful life. Love to you dear cousin.

“ My favorite memory of Ryan was the day in the picture below. About a month before it happened he had told me about the possibility of being deployed for Star Wars Weekends at MGM Studios for a few weeks. People who didn't extend their program were already going home, but many of us who stayed got deployed for the festival. I was unsure of who all was going to be there, but when we got there many of our Emporium family were there working. Ryan and our leader Calvin thought a picture would be a wonderful idea. It is still one of my favorite moments and picture from my first program.

“ The Uncertainty Of Life.....

Ryan,

On May 8th, the dear lord sent his angels to take you home on eagles wings. My fondest memory of you is when you were about 4 years old in the kitchen helping me cook. You weren't tall enough to reach the counter, I had this little stool and you would stand on it "I still have that little stool". I will miss you everyday of my life. I know in my heart that I will see you and your father one day in the kingdom of God. Love and Miss you so much, your Nana.

“ Rhino,

I am so very proud to be your Auntie. Thank you for the privilege of being my nephew and your gentle soul. A few of my fondest memories of you, when you were younger is, building forts at my house with all my pillows and blankets and chairs and couches. Your beautiful blondish curly hair and your Oshkosh B'gosh overalls. I'll love you always, till I see you again. Your Auntie, Bernadine Sandoval

Rhino,

My favorite memories of you were when we were younger and used to go camping with the family, hanging out in your Dad's RV, playing games, and fishing. I will never forget our fun times and your smile.

Love, Doccie

“ Son,

To find the words... you are the greatest blessing in my life. My love for you is seared into my heart, you are engrained into my soul. I cherish every moment, memory, hug... your beautiful smile. You are the kindest most loving person. You treat everyone with respect and dignity.

My son, you are an amazing husband, friend, brother and my number one son. Your heart is pure, your soul is genuine . You are my inspiration, my love, my life.

My greatest challenge will be living a life without your presence. I will feed my soul with the precious memories of your childhood. Your laughter, big hugs, kind words, gentle soul.

This world has become a little darker without you. You are the perfect person and now you are God's perfect angel. I will love you for eternity. Rest in peace my beautiful son. 🙏❤️

“ Ryan,
Your life was a blessing and your memory will live on forever in the hearts of all who knew you.
Since birth you were always quiet, polite, caring and loving!
Your smile and laughter the last time we got together will live in our hearts that no one else will ever fill.
We love and miss you!!

“ Ryan, you were the light of my daughter's life. I still remember the first time she told me about you. She was glowing with joy. And when you fell in love...she couldn't believe someone as wonderful as you loved her as much as she loved you. You treated my baby like a princess. I was so, so proud of how hard you worked to provide for your family. I have never met a kinder, gentler soul than yours. Thank you for blessing my life. I will miss you. And I know I will see you again. My heart and my spirit find comfort in that assurance.

“ We love and miss you so much! You were such a wonderful brother and so excited to be an uncle. I cannot wait until Nevaeh is old enough for me to tell her all about you. We will cherish all of our memories we have. Until we meet again, fly high kiddo and give a big giant hug to dad for me. Love you lots!!

“ I haven't really gotten to know him well because you guys lived so far, but from what I know about him he was a great guy. He was always smiling when I saw him. It was like he had no worries and I loved that. I remember at the baby shower we were laughing at him eating hot salsa because it was spicy but he ate it anyways because he liked it. We were honored that he got to celebrate our baby boy with us! We will miss and treasure all the moments we spend with him.

With love, Victor and Haley!
