“ I am Sandeep bhai's wife Neena's best friend. I have known them for 20 years. Our kids went to school together. Sandeepbhai was a very nice person who was always smiling. May his soul rest in peace and may God give Kushal, Roshan and Neena the strength to face this heavy loss.

“ I have some childhood memories of him when he used to visit his mama’s place at Bharuch and when we used to visit their place in Baroda. Being his mama’s granddaughter, he used to make us laugh a lot. Being a child, I also enjoyed a lot during his wedding. After that he moved to USA and I met him after so many years when I moved to the USA when he attended my sister’s wedding and we all had a great time together. Unfortunately he is no more but our condolences to the family. May God give you all the strength to bear this terrible loss and May his soul rest in peace.

“ I haven't met Sandeep kaka in person but looking at his recent pictures and videos shared by Neena kaki, i can surely tell one thing that Sandeep kaka had very strong willpower and led his life happily till the last moment. Also, got to see such great family bonding which definitely played a major role to give him strength to fight back.

Rest in peace. Om shanti 🙏

“ Soon after my engagement with Jayna on December 03 1979, I happened to visit Vadodara, met Chandrakant kaka, kaki and others in the family and the first thing that struck me was a very amicable, humble and hospitable guy, Sandip. Much later after my marriage and migration to Delhi, I went to Baroda on a professional assignment. Sandip was at hand to guide me through the labyrinths of the city. Last I met him was during the wedding of Hemal, Jayna's brother and Sandip's cousin in 1985.

But Jayna used to regale me of the camaraderie between her and Sandip in their early years. On hindsight I think I have always known him as a straightforward, loving and compassionate human being. See the ways of Destiny. Jayna left 6 months ago and Sandip now. May God allow them to rekindle their childhood bonhomie in His abode 🙏
