

Sara C Chew

October 1, 1932 - May 11, 2021

The youngest of 3 girls, Sara Chew (Crouse) was born on October 1, 1932. She grew up with her sisters (Ruth & Mary) and parents (Arther & Olive) in a small house near Delmont, PA. She graduated from the University of Pittsburgh, where she met her husband, Harold Raymond Chew. They married on April 15, 1955, and had 3 kids - Carol Z Perezluha born on December 20, 1956, Thomas Lloyd born on March 13, 1959, and Daniel Paul born on August 26, 1962. Sara & Danny lived in their home on Marlborough Ave, in the Squirrel Hill section of Pittsburgh for over 50 years. Sara loved classical music, and went to live Pittsburgh Symphony concerts. Her 4 grandchildren are Gwyneth & Caitlin (from Tom & Heidi Wachter), and Ashley & Steven (from Carol & John Perezluha). She loved taking them on walks to the playground. She loved taking a nap in the afternoon after lunch. All 5 Chew Family members graduated from the University of Pittsburgh. This was very important to Sara. The whole family did bicycles rides together. Tour of the Scioto River Valley (TOSRV) was a family favorite. At Midwest Double Century (MDC) in Ohio, Sara once rode 80 miles on her blue Gitane French bike with her sister Ruth. In 1983, her sons Tom & Danny along with their friend Bob Gottlieb created the Dirty Dozen bike ride/race up Pittsburgh's 13 steepest hills. In the 1990's, Danny twice won the solo 3,000 mile Race Across AMerica (RAAM). Danny was well on his way to riding 1 million miles when a bad bicycling accident left him paralyzed from the chest down on September 4, 2016.

Sara gave her kids a love of animals, especially cats, nature, piano and classical music, art, especially Impressionism and our empathy and compassion for people. Later in life, Sara developed lung cancer and dementia. She passed away at the age of 88.61 at 8:50 pm EST on May 11, 2021 at Carol & John Perezluha's house in Longwood, Florida with them and her granddaughter Ashley.
