“ Family and friends as we say our final words to this amazing, kind, loving, devoted, generous and compassionate mother Sarita it is without doubt that she will truly be missed. My mother was born in Trinidad on July 30th 1958. She was always a shy, quiet, and modest woman with a tendency to make you laugh or comfort you when you were having a difficult time. The happiest of times she spent was when she lived in Kissimmee. Although the hardest part is saying good bye along with the pain and emptiness that we may be left with I know that she will be where God wants her to be and that's with him. My mom was only 56 and I wish that so much of her life had not been lost with her illness and that things could have been different for her and for us. Now she is at peace and her struggles have come to an end, she has left us with an incredible feeling of both loss and emptiness. Even though she is gone she has left her legacy of love and generosity implanted in our hearts. As her tree of life still continues to grow within her gift of extended life. It will be known that her love and nurturing ways will always be remembered. I hope & pray that our generation can continue with the passion, love and generosity of being as kind as she was. You will always belong in our heart's my darling mother. I love you with my all!

“ Lamento mucho esta enorme perdida y sintiendo el dolor que su familia están pasando, quiero compartir la esperanza de que muy pronto "va haber una resurrección de parte de Dios", como nos dice la Biblia en Hechos 24:15. Ánimo y fortaleza para toda su familia en estos momentos dolorosos.

“ Les envié mis más sinceras condolencias por su pérdida de su ser amado. La muerte es un enemigo de la humanidad, no discrimina, deja en los que quedan atrás una pena insoportable, parecería no poder hallar consuelo a semejante dolor, debemos recordar que la muerte es parte de esta vida y por ende todos morimos. Pero existe alivio al dolor de la muerte. En la Biblia se halla dicho consuelo y una bella esperanza. Tal como dicen los siguientes textos que le cito: Juan 11:11 dice que los muertos están descansando. Génesis 3:19 dice: "polvo eres y a polvo volverás". Cuando morimos volvemos al mismo estado de inexistencia que antes de nacer. Es un gran alivio saber que los muertos no están sufriendo. Juan 5:28, 29 nos dice que Dios pronto va a "resucitar a todos los que están en las tumbas conmemorativas." Hechos 24:15 dice "Va haber resurrección" tanto de justos como injustos." Que maravilloso es saber que pronto volveremos a ver vivos en la tierra a nuestros seres amados (Salmos 37:29). Espero estas palabras le den cierto nivel de paz y esperanza.
