

Scott Michael Ison

December 12, 1961 - February 18, 2019

Scott Ison went home to be with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on February 18, 2019 at the age of 57.

He was born in Newberry, Michigan on December 12, 1961 to Ruben and Ann (Hiltunen) Ison. Scott was committed to his God, family, church, and job. He married Linnea Smith on June 27, 1981 and they were married for over 25 years.

Scott worked at Lockheed Martin for more than 30 years during which time he was able to travel to multiple countries and touch the lives of many the world over. Scott was ordained as a deacon of the Baptist Church at Muldoon Baptist Church in Anchorage, Alaska, and later as a minister at Parkway Baptist Church in Orlando, Florida. Scott also served as a youth pastor for a season at Conway Baptist Church in Orlando, Florida. He continued to serve God in his local church as the leader of the Band of Brothers, a men's ministry group at Crosslife Church in Oviedo, Florida.

He is survived by: his siblings Chris (Ann) and Kathy both of Newberry, Michigan; sons Brandon (Summer) of Orlando, Florida; Justin (Amanda) of Cañon City, Colorado; and Adam (Jamie) of Jacksonville, Florida and six grandchildren; Reyna, Tobiah, Bennett, Levi, Shiloh, and Alaska.

Memorial services celebrating the life of Scott Ison were held Saturday, February 23, 2019 at Crosslife Church in Oviedo, Florida.

Memorials may be directed to CrossLife Church in Oviedo, Florida, the Orlando Rescue Mission, or to a local charity for the homeless or veterans in memory of Scott Ison.

This is a very sad day for me learning now that Scott Ison has passed away. We would play basketball together at my parents house in Newberry mi and go fishing with him and his dad. This was a very bright and smart man. This is very upsetting to me because he was far to young to go.
