“ Words seem so useless at a time like this, but we had to let you know how much we care and how much we hurt with you. Teddy was the kind of son any parent would be proud of. His self confidence and charming way were evidence of the fact that he was very much loved at home. May a lifetime of wonderful memories give you strength to you and the family in the days ahead.

“ So very sorry for the loss of your dear loved one, such a young man. I could imagine you hope to see him again, at Romans 8:25 it encourages us to have this hope. May this confidence comfort you all in your time of grief and recovery.
