

Sewnarine Chintamoni

April 29, 1962 - November 12, 2025

With the heaviest of hearts, we share the passing of our beloved father, grandfather, brother, and friend, Sewnarine Chintamoni, who was called home on November 12, 2025. His sudden departure has left a deep ache in our hearts and a silence that can never be filled.

Born on April 29, 1962, in Port Mourant, Guyana, Sewnarine was a man whose life reflected generosity, warmth, and unwavering love. He had a way of making everyone around him feel seen and appreciated. Whether through his gentle words, his comforting presence, or his easy smile, he touched the lives of many.

To his children, Shellinie Michelle Chintamoni and Nalanie Christina Angard he was a source of strength, guidance, and unconditional love. To his cherished grandchildren, Kason, Nathaniel, and Ariya he was a place of joy, safety, and endless affection. His family meant everything to him, and his happiest moments were those spent surrounded by the people he loved most.

Sewnarine is also survived by his brothers, Krishna Chintamanie and Cheyenne Sukhnandan, and his sister, Kamla Lilia, who each held a special place in his heart.

Those who knew him will remember his kindness, his humility, and the way he carried himself with quiet grace. His life was a beautiful example of love in its purest form steady, patient, and always giving.

Though we mourn his loss deeply, we find comfort in knowing he is now at peace and embraced by the loved ones who went before him. His spirit will continue to live on in every memory shared, every story retold, and every heart he touched.

May his soul find eternal rest, and may we continue to honor him by living with the same love and gentleness he showed us all.
