

Shareaf Jamal Alexander

August 22, 1993 - June 10, 2015

Shareaf Jamal Alexander, 21, of Orlando, Florida, passed away on June 10, 2015. Shareaf was born August 22, 1993 in Columbia, South Carolina to his mother Carlene Alexander and father David Alexander. At the age of 21 he was a hardworking, strong willed, and loving brother, uncle and son. Shareaf spent his time working at his family business that he built with his father, David, the foundation of their company, Complete Custom Wheelz. He was currently attending Valencia College. His greatest aspiration was to become an entrepreneur; following in his father's footsteps to take over the family business.

He is survived by his parents Carlene and David Alexander; his brother Kenwin Bell and sisters Taneka Manuel, Bonequa Nelson, and Angel Alexander. He is also survived by several aunts, uncles, cousins, nephews, nieces and a host of friends.

Tribute Wall

“ We will always share the same Birthday and that smile could lit a whole room I miss it soo much cousin. You haven't visited me in my dreams in a while. Continue to get your rest ☐

Chevelle Bethel - January 11, 2024 at 10:26 PM

BK

“ My brother was a gentle soul and was so full of life! As a child,he had a passion for the Dallas Cowboys. I loved taking him to Pop Warner football practices and games. Lil brother,you have and always will hold a special place in my heart. I love you Panka.....seeyou at the Gates baby.

Benita Kenlay-Golson - July 09, 2015 at 12:21 PM

BN

“ I love you forever

Bonequa Nelson - June 18, 2015 at 06:42 PM

FA

“ Father lit a candle in memory of Shareaf Jamal Alexander

Father - June 18, 2015 at 11:01 AM