

Sharon Marie Crespo

October 14, 1973 - November 4, 2023

Sharon Marie Crespo - Sunrise: October 14, 1973 - Sunset: November 4, 2023

Sharon is survived by her husband, Daniel, and her two daughters, Monique Renee and Devonna Shanel, accompanied by Julysa M. and Myles M.

Sharon is preceded in death by her parents, Martha Isabel and Moises Carlos Gonzales, mother-in-law Georgina and father-in-law Daniel Crespo, and brother-in-law Allen Pettingill.

Deeply loved by her siblings Pearl, Jennifer, Jeffery, Adolph, Janet, Adrian, and brother-in-law, Marcos; nieces, DeAnnette & family, Ashlyn, Kayla, Audrina, and Raelyn; nephews, Allen, Marco, Cristian, and Elijah.

Sharon was known for being a social, loving, eccentric butterfly, who made a positive impact on everyone who crossed her path. Her main mission in life was to love and succeed with endless accomplishments. She was a joy to be around, the literal life of the party. Every room was filled with happiness as soon as she walked in.

Mom, azucar, you will be greatly, greatly missed. We love her more than anything.

“ I’m so sorry for your loss.
I can’t remember what grade we were in when I took this photo. I just wanted to share it with her family. She was so fun to be around.
