

Sharon K Zuccaro

August 9, 1942 - February 8, 2016

Sharon Kay Zuccaro, 73, of Orlando, was called to the Lord's side on Monday, February 8, 2016, to join her beloved husband and soul mate of 54 years, Richard John, who only three months earlier answered the same call. Born in 1942 in Flora, Illinois, Sharon was a loving wife, sister, aunt, mother, grandmother and soon-to-be great-grandmother.

Sharon leaves behind four sons, Michael (wife Chris) of Montverde, Timothy (Lynn) of Key Largo, Jeffrey (Betty) of Davenport and Andrew of Charlotte, N.C.; a daughter, Rebecca (Charles) McClung of Grant-Valkaria; four grandchildren, Brittany (Mark) Marshall of Groveland, Courtney of Eustis, and Emma and Sophia of Davenport; and great-grandson Owen Anthony Marshall of Groveland, who will join us in July.

She's also survived by brother Larry (Karen) Smith of Illinois, sister Yvonne Glaspy of Florida and stepbrother Lee (Linda) Moore of Kissimmee.

A funeral Mass will be at 1 p.m. Saturday, February 13, at St. John Vianney Catholic Church, 6200 S. Orange Blossom Trail, Orlando, FL 32809. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to be sent to the church. Flower arrangements are not permitted at the church during Lent.

Following the Mass, a celebration luncheon of Sharon's life will be at St.

Mary's of the Angels Church, 6316 Matchett Road, two doors north of Mom and Dad's loving home.

“ As a friend of Shari's sister in law Maria since we were 15 and consequently a friend of the family for all these years, I send my condolences to the entire family who lost their daughter, mother, sister, aunt, cousin and friend. My heart goes out to all of you and am certain that Shari and Richie are together again in the bond of love they shared for so many years.

“ From the first time I met her she made me feel like I was her son. She always made sure we had enough to eat, countless trips to and from Datsun field, thousands of gallons of sweet tea, and always including me in family functions. She was truly my second mom. Every time I saw her a huge smile would come across my face, because that's the way she made me feel. Mrs. Zuccaro I love you and you will always have a special place in my heart. Thank you for helping shape the man I am today.

“ My deepest sympathy to the Zuccaro family. I only met Shari and Richard a few times but I knew how special they were from all the stories shared by the family. Rest in peace.

“ Shari will be greatly missed by all of us. We have a lot of good memories with Richard and Shari but our favorite was "Dancing in the Streets" which we actually got out of the car when the song came on the car radio. We are sure they are dancing on the golden streets in Heaven! God bless her and Richard and their family. Love. Ron, Linda, Dante, Christopher, Anthony and family and also Emma Zuccaro

“ We were first introduced at Emma's Christening to a wonderful kind lady and her husband, who welcomed us not as strangers but friends.

They are now together again and looking down on the family and friends grieving and sending you love.

Rest in peace together and our love to the family, if we can help with anything please let us know .

God bless you all X

“ Though it was quite a shock this morning to find out that Aunt Sheri went to Heaven to be with Uncle Rich, I take comfort in knowing they are together again. They were both such a big part of our family. I remember going to their house and them making us a waterslide outside, they bought me my first pair of bellbottom pants and introduced me to The Beach Boys music. We stood in the livingroom, singing along and pretending to be on surfboards. They took me out on the lake where I caught my first fish and we laughed when Uncle Rich dropped our only oar in the water. They were true soul mates and they lived life to the fullest. It is hard to think of one without seeing the other in my memories. While we mourn their loss, may we also be consoled by the assurance that they are reunited and will be together in Heaven for eternity. Love to all and God Bless you!
